

CALIFORNIA HOMIES

The Magazine of Architecture
The Arts & Distinctive Design

FEBRUARY 2009

events & affairs

The Super Bowl Of Native American Art Collecting Returns To The Marin Civic Center

The 25th Annual Marin Show: Art of the Americas is open February 21–22, showcasing indigenous arts from across North, Central and South America. The show produced by KR Martindale Show Management includes pottery, textiles, sculpture, jewelry, beadwork, baskets, paintings, photography and more. The artwork ranges in price to offer quality material to all buyers from first time visitors to seasoned collectors. The show is vetted by the Antique Tribal Art Dealers Association (ATADA), and is organized into two areas: the main floor focusing on antique material, and the adjacent hotel ballroom showcasing more contemporary art. In addition to the many exhibitors featured, the show will be giving public lectures on Native American Art and its history. To highlight the 25th Anniversary, a gala will be held on Friday February 20. For more information call 310.822.9145 or visit www.marinshow.com

ABOVE LEFT Beaded Sioux Pipe Bag c. 1880, Michael McGlynchey Pottery.
ABOVE RIGHT The Horse of the West & The Night Sky, by Niki Lee.
Ink on Paper, 20 x 16 inches.