

Fine Art of Today's West

Southwest Art

BEST OF THE WEST

////// WEST COAST // openings / exhibits / events / auctions

Super Bowl of Native American Art

SAN RAFAEL • The annual Marin Show: Art of the Americas unfolds at the Marin Center February 13-14. The event showcases indigenous arts from across North, Central, and South America and has been described as the “Super Bowl” of Native American art collecting because it brings together top dealers, collectors, artists, and experts from around the globe. Antique artworks as well as contemporary pottery, textiles, sculpture, jewelry, baskets, paintings, and photographs are on view. They range in price from the low hundreds to $1 million. The event includes a panel discussion, Collecting and the Law. For more information: 310.821.2463 or www.marinshow.com.